Spaces available in our after school football club

Aldershot football team will be back with us for our summer term and their first session for upper school will be Friday 2nd May. They have a few remaining spaces available, so if this is something you would be interested in for your child please see the flyer attached for all relevant information.

Spotlight UK offers

Spotlight UK provides activities to help create positive memories across Hampshire and Berkshire. They now have funding to run a year programme for children who meet their Scarlett's Smiles criteria as per below. All activities including bowling, swimming, laser tag, and more will be £1.50 per child.

SCARLETT'S SMILES CRITERIA

1. Children in care
2. Children affected by domestic abuse
3. Children affected by loss
4. Children with terminal illness or long term physical disabilities/mental health issues
5. Children who have a parent/carer/sibling with terminal illness/long term disabilities
6. Armed Forces/Emergency Services families

If you feel your child meets the criteria and you would like further information, please complete the form via the link below.
